

FACT SHEET

Toronto Field Naturalists Nature Arts Exhibit – Show and Sale See nature in Toronto through the eyes of the artist

Date: August 27, 2008 to September 14, 2008

Location: The Papermill Gallery at Todmorden Mills Heritage Museum and Art Centre
67 Pottery Road, Toronto, between Bayview and Broadview Avenues

Gallery hours:

August 27 to 31, Wednesday to Friday from 10 am to 4:30 pm;

Saturday and Sunday from noon to 5 pm;

September 3 to 14: Wednesday to Friday from noon to 4:30 pm;

Saturday and Sunday from noon to 4 pm.

Free admission to: Individuals, families and interested groups.

Content: Original water colours, acrylics, pastels, drawings, photographs and ceramics depicting nature in Toronto – flora, fauna and natural sites – by some 20 TFN artists, will be displayed and, in some cases, for sale.

Confirmed Exhibitors:

Artists: Nancy Anderson, Diana Banville, Adele Casson, Mary Cumming, Eva Davis, Gail Gregory,

Photographers: Anne Byzko, Eric Lin, Yoshie Nagata, Robin Powell

Potters: Elizabeth Block, Anne Leon

Parking facilities: There is on-site parking.

TTC Directions: Take any northbound bus from Broadview subway station to Pottery Road/Mortimer. Walk 5 minutes down the hill on Pottery Road.

For more information:

phone: 416-593-2656;

email: office@torontofieldnaturalists.org